2. If you can not, or desire not to, review this paper within the deadline please return all material immediately and contact me via email. Please indicate the conflict which presents review.

3. Journal space is limited, our rejection is high, and our criteria are exacting. Your evaluation should take account of the manuscript's scholarly or other merit, its appropriateness for the Journal of Transnational Management Development, its readability, managerial orientation and its conciseness of expression. The more extensive, detailed and specific your evaluation the more helpful it will be to me and the authors.

4. Your comments to the author are to be stated on the final sheet of the evaluation. Since this is forwarded directly please do not sign this page. Your opinion for acceptance or rejection should only appear on this sheet and NOT on the comment sheet.
